Dear La Verne:-

Just a few lines to let you know that I expect to come home this week-end. You said in your last letter that you'd try to get over to see me.

Well I wrote Frances a letter after supper & Helen Irwin one before supper & now I'm at yours. Although I was down listening to the portable radio that a couple of boys from our Coy has. Orville Drouillard & his friend are the boys that have it. I guess you remember hearing about Orville the champion fighter. And then I was watching a boxing match for a while of a kid with the priest & of course the attraction was the priest boxing

I told Frank I was going to write to you. When I arrive in Windsor Sat. Morn. I'll call Frank & get your phone no. then I'll call you. If you haven't a phone I won't be able to call you. So you'd better call Frank about noon Sat. she'll hear from me before that. If I can't get a pass I'll send her or else Onn. a telegram & which ever gets the telegram can <sup>(phone)</sup> call the other one. But Frank will know by noon whether I'm coming or not. So if you don't hear from me before noon on Sat. You can call Frank & she will tell you just the whole thing.

Be sure & bring Jimmie with you 'cuzz I'd love to see him too.

Well I guess thats all I can sat to nite & we'll have a good old talk Sunday I hope.

So I'll say Bye Bye

As Ever

Love

Harry
