INTRODUCTION

This document captures and publishes one piece of correspondence (hereafter, “artifact”) from the collection of World War Two correspondence of Harry William Manchester, of Essex County, Ontario, Canada. Harry spent six years in the Canadian Army, in Ontario, England, and as a prisoner of war held in Poland; and during that period wrote extensively to his relatives and friends. The extensive correspondence Harry wrote to his sister, Mrs. Elton Newman of Cottam, Ontario, Canada was preserved by her, and constitutes the bulk of this correspondence collection.

As correspondence, this artifact contains a wide variety of properties, which reflect its content, markings, and references.

The purpose of this document is to capture that content, markings, and properties, so that the artifact may survive in this published form or be transferred to another form, and also to preserve the timeline of historical events in the context of Harry William Manchester. Photographic images of the original parts of the artifact are included in this document, and the reader is encouraged to review those images.

EDITOR’S DESCRIPTION/COMMENT

This artifact is a letter from Private (Pte) Harry William Manchester to his sister, Mrs. Elton Newman of Cottam, Ontario, Canada, that was written and posted from Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, on July 21, 1940.

This letter was screened by military authorities under war-time censorship controls. As a result, a) Harry redacted his location from page one of the letter, and b) delivery of the letter was delayed by military authorities.

ADDITIONAL MARKINGS

The front of the envelope is stamped: “TRANSMISSION DELAYED FOR PURPOSES OF SECURITY” and the military censor annotated the front of the envelope with “Censored [censor’s initials] [illegible].”

CAVEAT EMPTOR

The editor has endeavored to provide the transcription of content below as an accurate depiction of the spelling, misspelling, grammar and prose of the original artifact, so that original practice and then-common usage is reflected in the transcript. This includes replication of any strikeouts or corrections in the original. However, the editor has had to apply an extensive amount of judgement and interpretation of the content of the original artifact. In the event, some marks on the original artifact may or may not be punctuation marks; they may be the result of dirt or smudges in the original.

In addition, many persons and locations are referenced within the content and markings, and the editor has endeavored to research and fully identify those persons and locations, within the properties associated with the artifact. However, the editor is constrained by “best available information” at the time this document is published.

Reader discretion is advised.

Dear Frances:-

Received your letter to-day. And was sure glad to know that you got the letter I wrote on the train

You asked me when we left camp. It was on Sun. note. A week ago to-nite. It sure don't seem that long thou. Our trip was really swell on the train & the scenery was beautiful. We were on the train 2 days & nites & have been here the rest of the time. I hope we soon leave thou.

I guess this is the day I was supposed to meet you in London. Well I hope you had a nice picnic of it. And also wish I were there with you. Onn. wanted me to get my pass from Fri. nite instead of Sat. Cuzz' Sat. was Ross' birthday & He & Marriane Jap & his G.F. were going to Rondeau to the dance & wanted her & I to go with them. But of course her plans were spoiled the same as all the rest of mine too.

There isn't much you can send me right now. Franc unless it's cigarettes. And I can buy buy them cheaper than you. So there isn't much use. I wrote La Verne last nite & I've lost her address. But I sent it to 305 Ferris. I hope it's right. I have lost Wilf & Dots address too. I'm getting terribly carless.

Boy it sure is lonely around here to-day. Wish we were eating some of those good old chicken dinners that we used to have. But I guess I'll spend a quite a few days like this before I get back.

But I'll sure have a whale of a time when I get back.

How are the girls. I suppose they're having a good time thru their holidays? I have spilled pop all over this paper.

Well it's getting close to supper time & there isn't much more I can say. So I'll close for this time.

Lovingly

Brother Harry

P.S.

I'll ~~am~~ always be looking
For your letters

Don't forget to send them to Base P.O.
