INTRODUCTION

This document captures and publishes one piece of correspondence (hereafter, “artifact”) from the collection of World War Two correspondence of Harry William Manchester, of Essex County, Ontario, Canada. Harry spent six years in the Canadian Army, in Ontario, England, and as a prisoner of war held in Poland; and during that period wrote extensively to his relatives and friends. The extensive correspondence Harry wrote to his sister, Mrs. Elton Newman of Cottam, Ontario, Canada was preserved by her, and constitutes the bulk of this correspondence collection.

As correspondence, this artifact contains a wide variety of properties, which reflect its content, markings, and references.

The purpose of this document is to capture that content, markings, and properties, so that the artifact may survive in this published form or be transferred to another form, and also to preserve the timeline of historical events in the context of Harry William Manchester. Photographic images of the original parts of the artifact are included in this document, and the reader is encouraged to review those images.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

CAVEAT EMPTOR

The editor has endeavored to provide the transcription of content below as an accurate depiction of the spelling, misspelling, grammar and prose of the original artifact, so that original practice and then-common usage is reflected in the transcript. This includes replication of any strikeouts or corrections in the original. However, the editor has had to apply an extensive amount of judgement and interpretation of the content of the original artifact. In the event, some marks on the original artifact may or may not be punctuation marks; they may be the result of dirt or smudges in the original.

In addition, many persons and locations are referenced within the content and markings, and the editor has endeavored to research and fully identify those persons and locations, within the properties associated with the artifact. However, the editor is constrained by “best available information” at the time this document is published.

Reader discretion is advised.

TRANSCRIPTION OF ARTIFACT CONTENT

Aldershot, Eng.

Sept. 24/40

Dear La Verne:-

Well how are you getting along now? The last letter I got from Franc. She said you were 'nt well. Of course you could easily be well again by now as it takes nearly three weeks, for mail to come across the ocean.

We are having grand weather over here. I think better than what you have been getting. They tell me it has been raining a lot over there. I hope it has stopped by now.

They seem to be having a lot of damage done a London. Thats about 40 miles I guess. But haven't did any damage here to speak of. & I guess we are lucky for it. We can see the flashes every nite over London way.

How are the Woods' family & Jimmie I would love to see him again. I suppose their home seems bare with both Eleanor & Wilfred both getting married at once. I hear George has a new Packard. I'll be he really goes to town in it too.

I have been working on Military Police work every since I cam to Eng. On week I'm on afternoon shift & the next week morning shifts. This week the morning. I washed my dirty clothes yesterday & to-day I have ironed my dress shirt & a tie as I have a girl from London coming down to-morrow aft. To see me. I have never met her before. But we have been trying to get together every since I arrived. It seems that something turns up every time we plan to meet I hope it don't to-morrow tho' I have to press my uniform to when I the iron gets hot enough. She has sent me some pictures of herself. & she has one of me that her cousin in Windsor sent her. I used to go with her cousin. (Pearl) So her cousin ~~sh~~ sent her my address & picture & Pearl also sent me her address in London. So thats how we got to writing to each other. The next thing is to meet her.

I want to get my hair washed too before supper. It is sort of pretty over here but of course everything is done by the government at the present time. Everybody you see has a uniform on. Even the women & girls are nurses or belong to the Auxuary Terretorial Service. I have met several Canadian girls that have come to England & joined it (A.T.S.)

They are cookes, ambulance drivers etc.

I never saw so much military work done in my life before & I hope I never see it again

Some of the boys that have been in the hospital, say that the kuhale unit of nurses are from the Grace hospital in Toronto Canada. It is quite a large hospital too. So the Toronto hospital must have lost a lot of nurses when they came over here.

Well Sister I think I'd better close for this time. Give everybody my love & be sure & write as often as possible. I will say By Bye

Lovingly

Harry
